Legacy of Alaska

Today's Treasure - Tomorrow's Heirloom

Legacy of Alaska is a limited edition giclée print of 950 taken from a painting by Sydney Laurence depicting Alaska's Mt. McKinley. The painting is from the art collection of Alaska National Insurance Company. Legacy of Alaska is being sold as a fundraising project for the Anchorage Celebration of Alaska's 50 Years of Statehood in collaboration with The Anchorage Museum at Rasmuson Center and the Anchorage Statehood Celebration Board.

The proceeds from this rare edition of prints will go towards 6 months of commemorative and celebratory events, legacy projects and history awareness campaigns in honor of the Statehood Anniversary. The 2009 State Celebration kickoff, hosted by Anchorage, will begin June 2008 and culminate on Statehood Day January 3, 2009.
